Parchim

1. During the night of 31 October and on the day of 31 October 1951, several shipments of tanks arrived from Ludwigslust at the railway station in Parchim. Forty-eight tanks were counted. [REDACTED]

2. Up to 1 November 1951, other forces also arrived by freight car in Parchim. The barracks on both sides of Karl Marx Strasse have been strongly manned since then. On the tank maneuvering grounds between Parchim and Neuburg, there has been practice day and night since then.*

Stern-Buchholz at Schwerin

3. On 2 November 1951, 100 soldiers were unloaded from an ammunition train of 50 cars at the railway station.

* Comment: It is believed that the regular garrison returned from maneuvers during the first days of November.
